Burton Grange is a specialist residential service in Burton-on-Trent, supporting up to six adults with learning disabilities and autism. Located in a well-connected market town with access to shops, leisure facilities and green spaces, the service offers a warm, modern environment where individuals can feel settled, supported and part of their local community.

At Burton Grange, support is delivered using Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) principles, with a strong focus on understanding each individual's needs, strengths and goals.

The experienced team works alongside people to build confidence, develop independence and create meaningful daily routines that reflect personal interests. Whether learning new skills or accessing the community, individuals are supported to live fulfilling and purposeful lives.

The home offers high-quality accommodation, including en-suite bedrooms, spacious communal areas and landscaped gardens that encourage socialising and relaxation.

With strong transport links and a wide range of local opportunities, Burton Grange provides a nurturing pathway for individuals to enjoy everyday life, connect with others and develop greater independence within a supportive and welcoming setting.
