Bayview Lodge is a specialist residential service in the coastal village of Rhose, Vale of Glamorgan, supporting up to seven adults with learning disabilities and/or autism. Situated close to local amenities, transport links and community facilities, the service provides a safe, homely environment where individuals can access personalised support while building skills, confidence and independence.

Support at Bayview Lodge is shaped by the Active Support Model and a person-centred approach that focuses on understanding each individual's needs, strengths and aspirations. Working collaboratively with families, professionals and external agencies, the team develops tailored support plans that promote inclusion, choice and opportunity.

Through Positive Behaviour Support, personalised keyworker relationships and meaningful community engagement, individuals are empowered to take ownership of their lives and make progress towards their personal goals.

The service offers seven en-suite bedrooms, spacious communal living areas and a sensory-focused environment designed to promote comfort and wellbeing. With access to a sensory cabin, gardens, activity spaces and a wide range of local leisure opportunities, Bayview Lodge provides a supportive setting where individuals can explore new experiences, develop life skills and enjoy an active and fulfilling lifestyle within their local community.
