The service is particularly experienced in supporting individuals transitioning from psychiatric hospitals or secure settings, offering a safe and structured environment where people can rebuild confidence and move forward positively.

Support at The Old Posting Office is highly personalised, with a strong focus on each individual's strengths, interests and aspirations.

The team works closely with Positive Behaviour Specialists to provide safe, responsive support, while encouraging independence and progression. Staff are trained to deliver tailored care that supports individuals to develop life skills, manage behaviours and achieve meaningful outcomes.

The home offers a warm and homely environment, including en-suite bedrooms, self-contained flats and communal living spaces that promote independence and social interaction.

Located in a quiet village setting with strong transport links and access to local amenities, the service provides a balance of peaceful living and community engagement, supporting individuals on their journey towards greater independence.
